

Although some Pinellas County government offices will be closed for in-service training on Monday (Feb. 19), all courts in the Sixth Judicial Circuit will be open for all scheduled proceedings and other normal business.

Although most offices of the Pinellas Clerk of Court will be closed, already-scheduled Court proceedings and emergency services provided by the Court will not be affected. The Clerk's office will maintain counter service to receive payments and court filings on the second floor of the Criminal Justice Center at 14250 49th St. North, Clearwater. Drop boxes will be available at other locations maintained by the Clerk.

It is the Court's intent that these closings will not affect defendants, litigants, attorneys or others with business before the Courts.
