NOTICE REGARDING SCHEDULING OF EXPERT WITNESSES FOR NON-JURY TRIAL TESTIMONY TO BE SERVED WITH TRIAL SUBPOENAS

Usually, all cases are scheduled to begin at 9:00 a.m. Consequently, the lawyer requesting your testimony at trial in this case will not know the exact time your testimony will be needed. It is for this reason that experts are subpoenaed for the entire trial period and a definite time for your testimony is rarely able to be set in advance. The expert is, therefore, placed on "standby" or "alert" status. The lawyer will periodically keep you advised as to the progress of the trial so that you will have as much advance notice as possible, hopefully resulting in a minimal disruption to your routine schedule. If you have been subpoenaed for trial and it is subsequently determined that your testimony will not be needed, the lawyer will notify you as soon as that determination has been made. If you are going to be unavailable during the trial period, you should immediately notify the lawyer subpoenaing you so that lawyer may take action he or she deems appropriate.
